Change to Major/Degree Program – Interdisciplinary Studies, BARSC, 126 Credit Hours

Existing Program Introduction:

The individualized curriculum of a BARSC degree candidate is supervised by an advisory committee, which aids BARSC candidates in course selection and career orientation. In place of the university's traditional major and other requirements, BARSC students must take a wide range of courses designed to develop intellectual inquisitiveness. These requirements are constructed so that BARSC students satisfy the basic Carolina Core degree requirements and South Carolina Honors College requirements. Students must also submit a senior thesis or project worth 9 to 12 credit hours and complete a total of 69 honors course credit hours. Graduation with the BARSC degree requires a 3.50 cumulative GPA. Major requirements are set by each student's advisory committee, depending on his or her goals and needs.

Minor (0-18 hours) optional

BARSC student is not required to complete a minor, as most students fulfill all credit hour requirements through their individualized program of study. Some students, however, may choose to complete a minor consisting of 18 credit hours of prescribed courses. The minor is intended to develop a coherent basic preparation in a second area of study, such as a foreign language. Minors may be selected from a University-wide list of approved minors. Courses applied toward general education requirements cannot be counted toward the minor. No course may satisfy both major and minor requirements. Minor requirements can satisfy Honors College course requirements. All minor courses must be passed with a grade of C or better.

A list of minor programs of study can be found at Programs A-Z.

Existing Electives:

Electives (0-54 hours)

The number of electives needed to reach minimum degree requirements will vary, depending upon the number of hours in the major, how Carolina Core and Honors College Core requirements are fulfilled.

Existing Major Requirements:

4. Major Requirements (24-78 hours)

Courses required as determined by student's BARSC Committee. Major courses typically demonstrate depth and breadth of study in at least two academic disciplines.

Concentration (24-78 hours)

Students who are selected for the BARSC MD Accelerated Undergraduate to M.D. program are automatically enrolled in the Accelerated Pre-Medicine Concentration.

The South Carolina Honors College and the University of South Carolina School of Medicine - Columbia offer an innovative "fast track" program for honors students who seek a medical degree. Named "BARSC-MD" for the two degrees it awards, this combined and accelerated program enables admitted students to receive an undergraduate degree from the South Carolina Honors College (Baccalaureus Artium et Scientae), and a medical degree from the UofSC School of Medicine. BARSC MD students are selected through a rigorous application process during the summer between high school graduation and the start of the fall freshmen semester. Students admitted to this program typically complete their undergraduate degree and their medical degree in seven years. The program includes completion of all pre-medical and additional honors requirements in three years and involves a significant research and thesis component. Medical school starts in the 4th year of the program and is completed in four years.
