

YOUR NAME HERE

Postal Address

Phone Number | E-mail Address

EDUCATION

Master of Arts in Public History, University of South Carolina, expected May 2019.
Concentration: Museums and Material Culture.

Certificate in Museum Management, University of South Carolina, expected December 2019.

Bachelor of Arts, University of Virginia, May 2011. Major: History and Women's Studies.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Historic Columbia. Graduate Assistant. August 2014 - May 2015.

South Carolina State Historic Preservation Office. Intern. Summer 2014.

McKissick Museum, University of South Carolina. Graduate Assistant. August 2013 - May 2014.

Department of History, University of South Carolina. Teaching Assistant for U.S. History since 1865; Introduction to African History. August 2012 - May 2013.

PUBLICATIONS, PUBLIC HISTORY REPORTS, AND EXHIBITS

“The Risks of Professionalizing Local History: The Campaign to Suppress My Book.” Article under submission at The Public Historian.

Survey of Cast-Iron Storefronts in Charleston's Commercial District. Report prepared for the Preservation Society of Charleston, April 2012. Co-author.

“A Woman's Work is Never Done: Women in Government and Politics.” Exhibit curated at the Thomas Cooper Library, University of South Carolina, March 2012.

Slavery at South Carolina College, 1801-1865: The Foundations of the University of South Carolina. Co-author. Website researched and created in the Historic Site Interpretation course as a group project. Initial website migrated to official USC site, Summer 2011: <http://library.sc.edu/digital/slaveryscc/index.html>

University Neighborhood Historic District, Columbia, Richland County, South Carolina.
Nomination to the National Register of Historic Places. 160 contributing properties.
Prepared for the University Neighborhood Association, May 2004. Co-author.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLIC FORUMS

“Slavery and South Carolina College: Telling the History of Slavery at the University of South Carolina.” Poster presented at the Organization of American Historians / National Council on Public History conference, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, April 2012.

“Walking in the Past Lane: Slavery at South Carolina College, 1801-1865.” Public forum at Richland County Public Library Local History Room, Columbia, February 2012.

“‘Saved by Outsiders’: The Architectural Impact of the ‘Second Yankee Invasion’ in Georgetown County, South Carolina.” Paper delivered at the Southeast Society of Architectural Historians conference, Charleston, October 2011.

MEMBERSHIP IN PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

National Council on Public History
South Carolina Federation of Museums
Vernacular Architecture Forum

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

Geographic Information Systems
Introduction to Material Culture
Historic Site Interpretation
Historic Preservation Practicum
Charleston Preservation Field School

AWARDS AND HONORS

“Graduate Travel Award” from the National Council on Public History. Presented at the NCPH annual meeting, Las Vegas, Nevada, April 2018.

Recipient of the “Darrick Hart Award for Excellence in Public History” for 2012, given by the Public History Program, University of South Carolina.

Co-recipient of the “Student Project Award” for 2000 given by the National Council on Public History to recognize The Kiplin Hall Conservation Plan, a management plan written for a 300-year-old English country estate, site of the University of South Carolina field school in the United Kingdom.

2/27/2018