Professional Educational Materials: Computer-Based Materials

Positive Aging Resource Center (PARC) (www.positiveaging.org). The PARC website was created with funding from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) in order to educate older adults, caregivers, and providers on mental health and aging. The web site includes interactive elements, personal stories, and older adult friendly design (S. Levkoff, PI).

CuidateCuidador (www.cuidatecuidador.com). This NIA-funded culturally tailored website for Spanish-speaking dementia caregivers offers a public forum, an "Ask the Expert" section, information on maintaining caregiver quality of life, and information on dementia caregiving skills. Users also have the option of an audio voiceover (SBIR Phase II awarded to EHG).

Love & Help (助爱之家) (www.loveandhelp.com) This NIA-funded culturally tailored website for Chinese dementia caregivers is a Web 2.0 product providing knowledge and caregiving skills. Caregivers are given the opportunity to ask questions of an online expert, and to share experiences and personal stories (SBIR Phase II awarded to EHG).

Divorceafter50 (www.divorceafter50.com). This NIA-funded website was developed to educate women over 50 about the risk of HIV/AIDs and STDs (SBIR Phase II awarded to EHG).
