Earn While You Study

Students in this class will use the CircleIn App as a student led community to help one another succeed in this course. Studying and learning alone is one of the hardest parts of a course. With CircleIn, you can also earn points and prizes (Amazon, Starbucks, DoorDash, etc.) by using the app with classmates. Our hope is that you will find the app useful as another way to participate and belong in your class community.

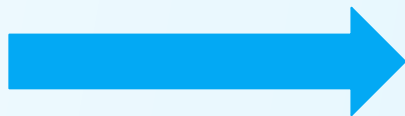

Studying = Points and Points = Rewards

To Login: First, begin typing your school name, then you MUST select your College/University from the drop down menu and then click "Select School" button.

Your Username and Password will be the same credentials you login into your school systems.

The First Time You Log In...

CircleIn can match you with an ideal study partner. But first we need to set up your profile. The first time you launch CircleIn, you will answer a few quick questions so our algorithm can work for you. It's super fast.

If you prefer to work alone and do not want to be matched with a study partner, just select "Not Available" and when asked how often would you like to study with other students? Answer "Never" and this will force the algorithm to ignore you.

If you change your mind later, you can always update your profile later.

The image shows a dark-themed user interface for setting up a profile. A modal window is open in the foreground, asking 'How often would you like to study with other students?'. It has three radio button options: 'At least once a week or more', 'Before tests, exams and quizzes', and 'Never'. Below the options are 'Back' and 'Done' buttons. In the background, a larger form is visible, titled 'Select your ideal study time for each day of the week'. It includes a sub-header 'This will help us find other students who study at similar times as you.' and a grid of buttons for each day of the week (Monday through Sunday). For each day, there are five buttons: 'Morning', 'Afternoon', 'Evening', 'I'm flexible', and 'Not available'. At the bottom of the background form, there are 'Back' and 'Next' buttons.

#1 Goal of the Community:

Your #1 goal is to pass the class. With CircleIn you are part of a community of classmates and the #1 goal of the community is to chat about issues and help each other succeed. Each time you create and share study tools, like flashcards, resources, shared notes, etc. you earn points towards prizes (Amazon, Starbucks, DoorDash, etc.) for sharing study tools with your community.

*All chat rooms are private and are not shared with your professor. Your professor may have the ability to add comments to study tools you've created (Flashcards, Questions, Resources, Notes, but they will not be able to see or participate in your chat groups, unless you can see them in the member list.

My Section Chat:

This chat channel allows you to talk in private group chats with your entire class. If you need help and your class isn't responding fast enough, you can also try...

All Sections Chat:

This chat channel allows you to chat with any student at your college, regardless of who the professor is, so you can ask for help from the widest possible audience.

All Flashcards, Resources, Notes, and Anonymous Questions go to everyone taking the same course at the same time, so you have the widest potential to give and get help from others. Be sure to double check your answers though.

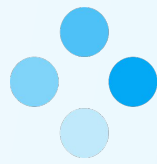

It's like Quizlet but better..

Get paid to make Flashcards!

- NO Ads. Ever.
- You earn points $$ for creating flashcards
- Everything you create is automatically shared with all students taking the same course. Their cards are shared with you too.
- Image based flashcards with no limits.
- No limit on practice tests.
- 3 modes to study flashcards.
  - Review Time allows you to self report and track how well you know the cards and we'll remind you to review cards you weren't 100% sure about.
  - Quiz Maker, creates a matching and multiple choice scorable quiz.
  - Match Maker allows to click and drag cards to their perfect match and keeps track of your results.
- Students in other classrooms will also share flashcards with you.

SHARE YOUR NOTES and earn points!

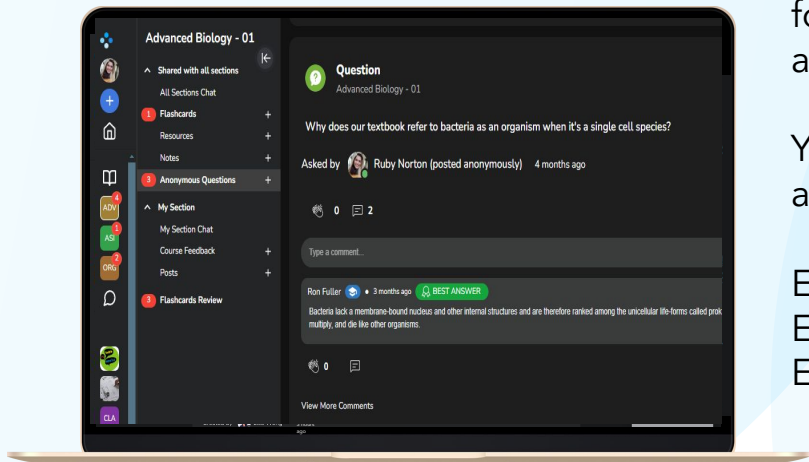

No one takes the perfect class notes, so why not swap and compare. Get a chance to see what someone else heard and share what you heard and get rewarded for being the kind of person who shares with others.

You're all in the same boat, you might as well row in the same direction!

Never Be Embarrassed to Ask for Help Again!

Ask Anonymous Questions

Our Question Tool allows you to ask your classmates for answers. You have the option of remaining anonymous or revealing your name. You're in control.

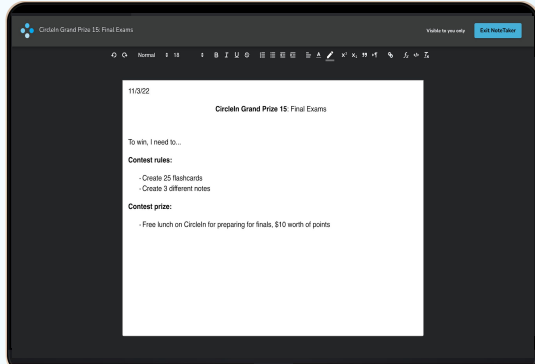

You never have to be embarrassed to ask a question again! You're classmates have your back!

Earn points for asking a question
Earn points for answering a question
Earn points for being selected as the "Best Answer"

How else can you score points for studying?

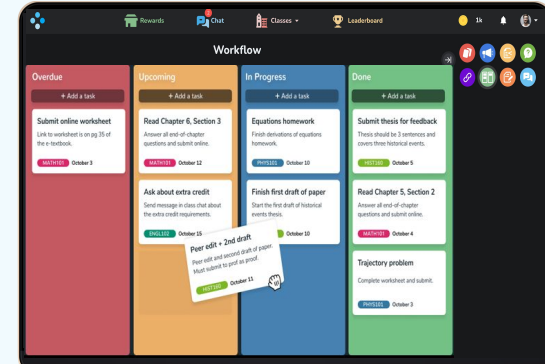

Take Private Notes for yourself.

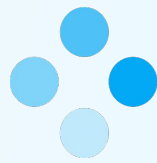

Share Resources like Youtube Videos.

Manage Your Life with our Planner and earn for completing tasks.

Every Study Action has a points value, and the goal is to receive and give help to the community of classmates.

Don't Cheat Yourself:

Why don't you just post a bunch of garbage to earn points?

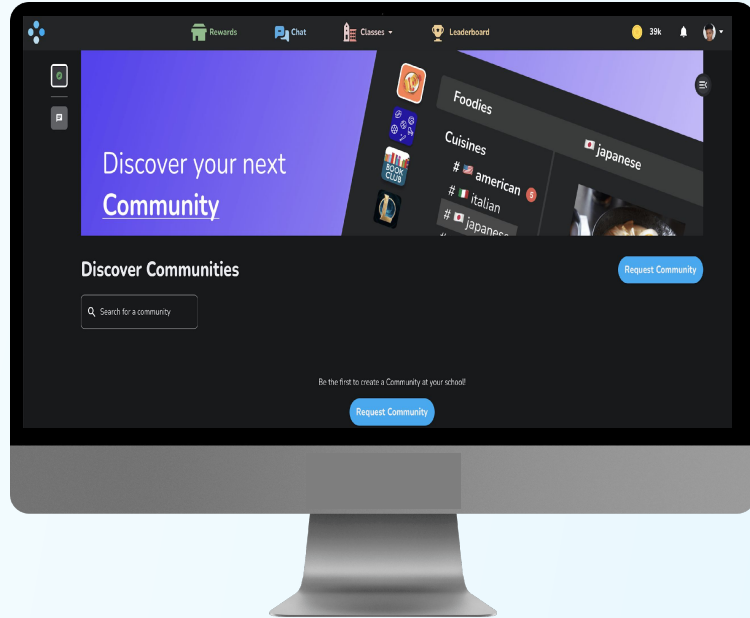

1. We will remove the points awarded from bad faith posts.
2. We give lots of money away to students who legitimately want to get better and help others. It pays to create quality study content
3. All gift cards are sent via email, you never have to add credit card or banking info to win on CircleIn.

Expand Your Own Network with CircleIn Communities

Create your own or join any Open Communities or Private Communities. (Similar to having your own Discord Server)

- Foodies
- Video Games
- Clubs
- Class of "202_"
- And more

Access the Discover Page to see available communities or request a Community, customize your chat channels and send the invite link when you start your own.

Score Your First Points...

Open up your app and complete your first quest found on the bottom of the home page. Each week quests change and this gives you a chance to earn bonus points while learning a new feature of the software. When you complete all available quests for the week, you will earn a 1.5x multiplier on everything you create in the app for the rest of the week. This is a great way to ensure your maximizing your earnings potential.

Click the create button to see how many points you'll earn for creating and sharing content.

Why do students get paid to study?

We believe engaged students are better students. We know students who use CircleIn, get better grades. We also believe you're spending money on college because you want to earn more money in life. So incentives work. We want to incentivize students to collaborate ethically on CircleIn and our incentives prove that. Give it a try for 30 days and see how you start feeling about studying.
