

DIGNITY AFTER CONFLICT: FASHION AND SPORT DIPLOMACY IN EAST AFRICA

DR. YVONNE KAMUGISHA:

FOUNDING AND ARTISTIC DIRECTOR
OF FASHION DIPLOMACY
RENAISSANCE INITIATIVES

WHEN?

MONDAY 11/17/25
4 PM

WHERE?

ANNE FRANK CENTER, USC
(NEXT TO CLOSE-HIPP)

Dr. Kamugisha's research critically examines U.S. influence and the role of religious actors in reconciliation and genocide prevention in Burundi, emphasizing regional dynamics that affect peacebuilding through judicial processes.

She founded and runs organizations that use fashion and sport to foster cultural understanding, empowerment, and restorative relationships between states, promoting dialogue, healing, and cross-cultural engagement.

Walker Institute

McCausland College of Arts and Sciences

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

AFRICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Anne Frank Center

University of South Carolina